

THE MUSIC

We all like different styles of music, so Oakland strives to provide music with the power to speak to the heart and not to individual preferences! We want to both encourage and energize people toward a time of unhindered and undistracted praise.

And above all, we want God to be honored through our worship and for all those present to connect with Him in a new exciting way each week.